All information should be typed or printed in black ink. Applications with incomplete or illegible information may be rejected.

A raffle license may be valid for a specified number of raffle events during a period of up to one year. If raffles are planned for multiple events, a separate raffle license should be sought for each event if each event involves separate ticket sales. An exception can be made for regularly scheduled events, such as monthly meetings – but complete date and location information is required for each planned drawing.

1. Complete name and mailing address of political committee.
2. Complete name and address of the chairman and treasurer of committee. Phone numbers must be included for both officers. E-Mail addresses are also requested, if available.
3. Complete name and address of the person or persons who will be responsible for running the raffle.
4. Enter the starting and ending dates for the sale of raffle tickets or chances.
5. Enter the location(s) and/or address where raffle chances will be sold or issued. If a specific event or address does not apply, a general description of the location(s) or area(s) where tickets will be sold must be listed.
6. List the number of raffle drawings to be held for which separate ticket sales will be conducted. Multiple drawings held at a single event should be listed as 1 raffle, unless separate tickets will be sold for each drawing.
7. Enter the date(s) the raffle winners will be drawn or determined. In the case of multiple raffle events, each date a drawing will be held should be indicated.
8. Enter the location(s) where the raffle winners will be drawn or determined. In the case of multiple raffle events, each location where a drawing will be held should be indicated.
9. Briefly describe the raffle prize(s). Additional pages may be attached, if necessary.
